ECLIPSES FOR 1808.

THERE will be five eclipses this year ; three of the Sun, and two of the Moon, as follows :—

I. The first will be a total eclipse of the Moon, on Tuesday morning, May 10, which, if clear weather, will be visible as follows :

	H. M.
Commencement of the eclipse	1 8	} Mean time morning.
The beginning of total darkness	2 6
The middle of the eclipse	2 53
Ending of total darkness	3 40
Ending of the eclipse	4 38

The duration of this eclipse is 3 hours and 30 minutes ; the duration of total darkness, 1 hour 34 minutes ; and the obscurity $18\frac{1}{2}$ digits, in the southern half of the earth's shadow.

II. The second will be an eclipse of the Sun, on Wednesday, May 25, about 6 o'clock in the morning ; but the moon's latitude will be so far to the south, that the eclipse will be invisible to us.

III. The third will also be of the Sun, on Wednesday October 19, about noon ; but in consequence of the moon's great south latitude, it cannot be visible to any part of the United States.

IV. The fourth will be an eclipse of the Moon, on Thursday morning, November 3d, which will be total, and visible, if the sky should be clear ; the times of which will be as follow :

	H. M.
Commencement of the eclipse	1 32	} Mean time morning.
The beginning of total darkness	2 39
The middle of the eclipse	3 29
End of total darkness	4 18
The ending of the eclipse	5 25

The duration of this eclipse will be three hours and 53 minutes ; the duration of total darkness, 1 hour 39 minutes ; and the obscurity 18 digits, in the northern half of the earth's shadow.

V. The fifth will be an eclipse of the Sun, on Thursday, November 17, at 10 o'clock in the evening, consequently invisible to us.

time from the Hegira, or flight of their prophet, A. D. 617. The ancient Greeks reckoned by Olympiads, the first of which is placed in the year of the world 3187; but as this account perished under the Constantinopolitan Emperors, they reckoned by inductions, every induction containing fifteen years, and the first beginning A. D. 313.

Managers, John Andrews, Esq. Capt. Samuel Dunn, Jonathan Amory, Esq. Henry Hill, Esq. Mr. Sam. Salisbury, Mr. Adam Babcock, Sam. Cobb, Esq. Mr. Sam. Snelling, Mr. Henderson Inches, and Mr. Ebenezer L. Boyd.

The Managers meet quarterly on the 2d Friday in each month, at the sign of the Good Samaritan, No. 13, Cornhill.

N. B. The Southern District comprehends all the south part of the town from the south side of Winter and Summer streets; and extends to the south sides of School and Milk streets, down to the water. The Middle District from thence to the Mill-Bridge, including West Boston.—The Northern District, all the north part of the town from the Mill-Bridge.

The above institution, though yet in its infancy, has afforded the means of relief to many necessitous persons, among others, whose feelings would have been hurt by an application for assistance from the Alms-House; as they are by this charity attended, free of any expense, by an able Physician, either at their own houses or at the Dispensary, as the case may require, and furnished with whatever medicine they may need, and with wine, if necessary.

Summary of the Method of Treatment to be used with Persons apparently dead from drowning, &c.

THE RESUSCITATIVE PROCESS,

Recommended by the Humane Society.

CONVEY the person to the nearest convenient house, with his head raised: strip and dry him as quick as possible: clean the mouth and nostrils from froth and mud. If a child, let him be placed between two persons naked, in a hot bed. If an adult, lay him on a hot blanket or bed, and, in cold weather, near a fire—in warm weather, the air should be freely admitted into the room. The body is next to be gently rubbed with warm woollen cloths, sprinkled with spirits, if at hand, otherwise dry. A heated warming-pan may be now lightly moved over the back, properly covered with a blanket—and the body, if of a child, is to be gently shook every few minutes. Whilst these means are using, let a clyster of warm water with as much common salt as it will dissolve, be thrown into the bowels. Bathe the breast with hot rum, and persist in the use of these means for several hours. If no signs of life should then appear, let the body be kept warm several hours longer, with hot bricks, or vessels of hot water, applied to the palms of the hands and soles of the feet; and this for a longer or shorter time, as the circumstances of the case may dictate.

The too customary method of rolling on a barrel, suspending by the feet, and every other violent mode of agitation, particularly in removing the body from the water, should be most carefully avoided.

To restore breathing, introduce the pipe of a bellows (when no apparatus is at hand) into one of the nostrils, the other and mouth being closed; inflate the lungs, until the breast is a little raised; the mouth and nostrils must then be let free,

Repeat this process until life appear.

Electricity is recommended to be early employed by judicious practitioners.

General Observations.—Resuscitation.

On the dawn or first indication of returning life, the prudent practitioner will resign the office of Art to Nature. It is evident that art has contributed her share by enabling Nature to struggle with the immediate cause of oppression. It is in fact this judicious blending of Nature with Art that gives to the latter all its efficacy.

On signs of returning life,

A tea-spoonful of warm water may be given; and if swallowing be returned, warm wine or diluted brandy. The patients must be laid in a warm bed, and if disposed to sleep, they will generally awake perfectly restored.

The plans above recommended are to be used three or four hours.—It is an absurd and vulgar opinion, to suppose persons irrecoverable, because life does not soon make its appearance.

 Bleeding never to be employed, unless by the direction of a physician.

This Society consists of such as have actually navigated the seas near or beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or round Cape Horn, as masters or commanders of vessels, and such as have been factors or supercargoes of vessels employed in the East India trade. It was instituted for the purpose of collecting together such observations, discoveries, books, papers, charts, and valuable publications, in every language, as might tend to facilitate the navigation of the Eastern and Southern Oceans. Every member returning from sea, is bound to present to the Society an abstract of the journal of his voyage, and to communicate in writing, his observations of the bearings and distances of all capes and headlands; the latitude and longitude of islands, rocks and shoals; unusual occurrences; storms and accidents; with all other observations which he may judge useful to be recorded. The Museum of the Society already exhibits a handsome collection of curiosities.

Commencement is on the 1st Wednesday in September.

The University is situated in the town of Providence, and is a large and elegant building, on a hill at the east part of the town, which renders it delightful by commanding an extensive, variegated prospect of the country adjacent; the edifice is of brick, 150 feet long, and 55 broad, four stories high, and contains 60 rooms. Upwards of six hundred persons have been graduated there since the institution, although the studies were interrupted by the College being used by the French and American troops for an hospital and barracks, from 1776 to 1782. It is now very flourishing. They have a Library of about 3000 volumes of valuable ancient and modern authors. The philosophical apparatus is in a very good state, fitted to give a full course of experiments.

CONVENTION

Of the CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

THEIR Meeting is held in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, (or day of Election) annually ; and on the following day at noon, after transacting the usual business of Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent widows of deceased Clergymen.

The Convention is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, and vested with no particular authority or control over the Churches. They have opened a friendly correspondence with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the Middle and Southern States, and with the representative bodies of the Congregational Ministers in Connecticut, New-Hampshire, and Vermont, for the purposes of communicating and receiving from them whatever may tend to promote the common interest of Christianity.

A Standing Committee of Convention have been appointed for the purpose of certifying the good character and qualifications of Ministers and Candidates who may travel into other states ; and an agreement has been entered into between the Convention and the other representative bodies of Ministers in other States, mutually to communicate the names of their Committees for this purpose. Every certificate must be signed by one gentleman at least of that Committee, from whose bounds the person recommended travels.

The Committee in MASSACHUSETTS consists of the following gentlemen.

John Lathrop, D.D. Boston	M. Hemmenway, D.D. Wells
Jed Morse, D.D. Charlestown

John Eliot, D.D. of Boston, Treasurer.

John T. Kirkland, D.D. Scribe of the Convention.

The Convention "earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen, who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity, which improved and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for publick teachers.

The Congregational Ministers throughout the Commonwealth, with some exceptions, are associated and have regular and stated meetings for fellowship and mutual improvement. The Convention has passed a vote, requesting the Moderator or Scribe of the several Associations throughout the Commonwealth, to forward to the Scribe of the Convention, a correct list of the members of their respective Associations, with the name of the Scribe of each, and of the Candidates licensed by them; and have directed that the Scribe of the Convention procure the insertion of the several lists in the Massachusetts Register.

The Convention, sollicitous to collect and preserve accurate documents for a History of their Churches, have passed a vote, that each of the Congregational Ministers in Massachusetts be requested to compile a history of his own Church, and of those in his vicinity which may happen to be vacant, and to make returns to the Scribe of the Convention. It is hoped this important request will not pass unnoticed, but be productive of great good.

Branch Pilots in the State of Massachusetts.Pilots for the Inward Division of Port and Harbour of Boston.

Thomas Knox, Charles Cole, Robert Knox.

Pilots for the Outward Division of the Port and Harbour of Boston.

Josiah Ayres, Nathl. B. Lyde, Leml. Ayres, John Tilley.

By a late law of this Commonwealth, the Pilotage of the harbour of Boston is formed into two divisions, Outward and Inward. The Outward division consists of four branches; and the Inward division consists of three branches; and no person so commissioned as a Pilot, or his deputy, shall undertake to bring in or carry out of said harbour any vessel drawing of nine feet of-water, (coasters and fishing-vessels excepted) except in his own particular branch, under the penalty of fifty dollars.

The Governor and Council determine and fix the fees of pilotage of the several pilots for the harbour of Boston, from time to time, having respect to the different risk and hazard of the inward and outward divisions, and according as the circumstances of peace or war, and the seasons of the year, may severally require; and the same to be specified on their respective warrants. A schedule of their fees to be hung up in the Custom-House for the port of Boston and Charlestown, for public inspection and information.

General Information respecting Probate Business.

AN Executor should notify the heirs, or persons interested in a will, of the day he intends to offer it for probate, that they may have opportunity to contest the probate thereof, if they see cause: otherwise the Judge may be obliged to postpone proving the will, and to cite the heirs. An executor knowing of his appointment, must cause the will to be proved within thirty days after the death of the testator, or present the said will to the Probate Court, and in writing declare his refusal: otherwise he may be subjected to a heavy fine. When a person dies intestate, the widow, or next of kin to the deceased, (if of age) should, within thirty days, take out a letter of administration, or in writing decline the trust. Guardians must be appointed to minors, before the estate is distributed, and before the account of administration is allowed. When executors and administrators are prepared to exhibit their accounts of administration to the Judge for allowance, they should invariably notify the persons interested therein, or their guardians, to be present in Court at the examination thereof: unless the heirs and guardians will previously examine the account to be exhibited, and will certify thereon their approbation of it. This method may save much trouble and expense. The same steps should be taken with creditors, when an estate is insolvent: that is, they must be notified as aforesaid, or they must certify as aforesaid. Administrators who wish not to account with the Judge of Probate for the personal estate of the deceased, as the same shall be appraised, should give notice thereof at the time they return the inventory, and then obtain an order for the sale of the whole, or such part thereof as the Judge shall direct; and the heirs also, if they apprehend the personal estate is appraised too low, should represent the same to the Judge, and request to have it sold at public auction, or at private sale, as will best serve the interest of all persons concerned.

DIRECTIONS FOR MARINERS.

Mr. William Lord, of Stonington-Point,† has erected an iron spear, about 13 feet long, with a white vane on the top, upon the rock of Latimer, in Fisher's-Island-Sound. The deepest channel is to the northward of the rock. This gentleman has it in contemplation, if suitable encouragement should be given by gentlemen from the Eastward and Westward (who are owners of navigation, and are constantly passing the Sound) to erect a spear upon what is called The Tail of Watch-Hill Reef—another upon Katymacut-Rock, upon the same Reef—one upon Ellis's Reef, which lies off Ram-Island, and is almost in the Middle of the Sound. These rocks are seldom, any of them, out of water, and much in the way of coasters up and down the Sound, who are unacquainted.

* Also appointed a Commissioner to treat with certain Indian tribes in the vicinity of Detroit.

† Stonington is a post-town and port, in New-London County (Connecticut) 14 miles E. by S. of New-London.

N. B. The use of this Table will be easily understood by the following example; viz. Against 10 dollars you will find the interest for a week to be 1 cent and 2 milles; for a month, 5 cents; for 3 months 15 cents; for 6 months, 30 cents; for 1 year, 60 cents.

A CONCISE AND CORRECT METHOD of Computing the Interest of Dollars and Cents, at the Rate of 6 per Cent. per annum.

RULE. MULTIPLY (according to the rule of contracted multiplication) the principal by half the time, reduced to months and decimals of a month; observing to place the unit figure of the half time under the unit figure of the dollars, and reverting the other figures—The product will be the interest in dollars and cents.

Rules for reducing Currencies.

2d. To reduce New-York and North-Carolina into New-Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, Vermont and Virginia, from the given sum deduct $\frac{1}{4}$ th thereof.

Into Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, from the sum given deduct $\frac{1}{16}$ th thereof.

Into South-Carolina and Georgia, to the sum given, add $\frac{1}{6}$ th, and then take half of the whole.

3d. To reduce Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, into New-Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, Vermont and Virginia, from the sum given deduct $\frac{1}{5}$ th thereof.

Into New-York and North-Carolina, to the sum given add $\frac{1}{15}$ th thereof.

Into South-Carolina and Georgia, multiply by 3 and $\frac{1}{9}$ th, and divide the product by 5; or multiply by 28, and divide by 45.

4th. To reduce South-Carolina and Georgia into New-Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode-Island, Connecticut and Virginia, to the given sum add $\frac{2}{7}$ ths thereof.

Into Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, multiply the given sum by 45, and divide by 28.

Into New-York and North-Carolina, from the given sum subtract $\frac{1}{7}$ th, and double the remainder.

COUNTERFEIT BANK BILLS.

BEDFORD BANK. Counterfeit Five dollar bills have been seen, signed K. Parce, President—John Marsh, Cashier, dated June 6, 1805—poorly done, on an impression and paper similar to most of the counterfeit's of Richmond, Scituate, Philadelphia Union Bank, Lankister, and Fredericktown Banks. They appear all on one kind of paper, which is light, spongy, and clumsily done. There is a Bedford Bank in Massachusetts, and the true names are Thos. Hazard, President, and John Pickens, Cashier.

CHESHIRE BANK, Keene, (N. H.) Four, Ten, and Thirty; Tens of the first impression. The word "TEN." in capitals in the margin, not well done, and the words "Cheshire Bank," which lean on the left, in the second line, not so fair as the genuine. Two's are altered to Ten, and Three's to Thirty. Four's, also of the first impression 1808.]

dated July 9, 1805, and payable to F. Alexander; paper lighter and more spongy than the genuine. Another denomination of Four are in circulation, payable to James Munn; paper much thinner than the genuine. Fives, dated Keene, Oct. 10, 1804, badly executed.  The last impression of this Bank are all Stereotype.

COOS BANK, Haverhill, (N. H.) One dollar bills of the Stereotype, altered to Four and Six, and equally as well done as those altered on Exeter Bank.

EXCHANGE BANK, Providence, (R. I.) Five's, poorly done; paper darker than the genuine. Fifty's, altered from smaller ones, well done; they bear, however, a light-house on the left, which the good do not.

EXETER BANK, (N. H.) Stereotype Four's, badly altered from One. The intersecting lines are not parallel, and the "Four," and letter S in the word Dollars, can be readily detected by the eye. Stereotype Six's, altered from one, and extremely well done.

FARMER'S EXCHANGE BANK, Gloucester, (R. I.) All denominations counterfeited. In the Two's the A in 'demand' projects above the other letters. In the true Five's the word FIVE in large capitals, extends over the whole bill; and the I continues all the way down in three strokes; in some of the counterfeits, it goes into two strokes when it enters the a in "Exchange," but not in all. The impression of the Ten's is smaller, and not so fair as the genuine. This Bank now issues Stereotype bills.  Since the above detection, the Five's have had all the errors corrected; the letters are cut handsome, and will bear a close examination. The plough, however, joins the tails of the oxen, which in the genuine does not; the engraver's name is done with a pen, and hardly legible. Some counterfeit Three's are also in circulation, well imitated; the One's are well done.

FARMER'S BANK, Troy, (N. Y.) Two and Ten, dollar bills, counterfeited. The Two's are struck on a plate which is about the eighth of an inch shorter than the impression of the genuine. The paper of the Ten's as well as Two's is of a lighter complexion, and impression generally fainter than the true ones.

GLOUCESTER BANK, (Cape-Ann) Five's and Ten's, paper of a much darker complexion, and poor imitation.

HARTFORD BANK, (Conn.) Three's altered to Thirty; but the letters added are so close together, that they are easily known. Three's are counterfeited, badly done. Some Two's have just appeared, the paper of which is lighter than the genuine, and the letters larger and more clumsy.

LINCOLN and KENNEBECK BANK, Wiscasset. Five and Ten. The true Ten's, near the vessel on the stocks, have a work-shop with windows; the false have a shop without windows; paper whiter and more spongy than the true. The Five's poorly imitated; plate larger and more clumsy than the genuine. Another denomination of Five's are in circulation, which bear a tolerable comparison with the true ones. The words "Lincoln and Kennebeck Bank," in German text, are however not so even as the genuine.

MAINE BANK, Portland. Five, Seven, Nine, and Fifty. In the true Five's, the fore part of the indented black ground, in which is the word FIVE in white letters, is directly under the fore part of the letter A of the word Maine, and the other part nearly under the hinder part of the letter A in the word Bank, in the second line; but in the counterfeit the black ground is placed farther forward, so as to bring the fore part under the space between A and I in 'Maine,' and the other part between N and K in 'Bank.' Sevens—the full point, at the end of 'Seven Dollars,' in German text, is left out in the false bill. Nines—the words "company of the," appear crooked and crowded; and the O in the word 'Dollars' in capitals, is higher than the other letters; the true bills fair, and the letters handsome. Fifty's—altered from Five.

MANHATTAN and MERCHANTS' BANKS, New-York. Five dollar bills of the former Bank, and Five's and Ten's of the latter Bank, are in circulation; poorly imitated, and easily known from the genuine.

MASSACHUSETTS BANK, Boston. Ten's—in the word Dollars at the top, the two ll's and the a and r join; in the true bills they do not. The B, in 'Boston,' is not so handsome, the o is upright, s not so good, and the t more sloped; the whole word, in fact, badly imitated. In the ornamental part of the true bills 'Ten, 10,' at each end, are thick black lines; in the false they are only dark shaded.

NANTUCKET BANK. Two, Three, and Five. The Five's are on a dark oilish paper, and apparently done with a pen. The Two's are a tolerable imitation, impression smaller, and the signatures poorly done. The letters of the Three's are larger than the true ones; but on comparison are easily detected.  Many Ten dollar bills are also in circulation, altered from a Two.

NEW-BEDFORD BANK. Nine ; in the motto 'Peace to the world,' the ld in world is in the shade ; the true bills have only the d ; paper whiter and more spongy.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE BANK, Portsmouth. Five and Ten ; payable at the Bank of the United States at Philadelphia : the letters poorly done, and some quite crooked.

NEW-LONDON BANK (Conn.) Ten and Twenty ; altered from smaller bills, and hard to be discovered.

NEW-YORR STATE BANK, The two figures of 6 at each top end of the bill look thick and blur'd, the writing is crooked, and the paper soft and spongy.

NORWICH BANK, (Conn.) Five's altered to Twenty-five ; the 25, in German text, is shaded by a scrawl ; in the genuine it is not. One's to Ten, well done. Those Five's, which have letters passing through the bill, also counterfeited, badly done, particularly in the penmanship.

PACIFIC BANK, Nantucket. Tens---clumsily executed ; the cashier's name spelt Tristrum instead of Tristram Hussey. Five's of this Bank have lately got into circulation ; paper and impression much like the genuine ; signatures well done ; but in the 3d line of the bill, the word 'Nantucket,' is much more crooked than the true ones.

PLYMOUTH BANK. Five's of the first impression ; imitation tolerable ; but they want a pine tree, which is in the true bills under the word 'bearer.' The second impressions are stereotype. But few in circulation.

PORTLAND BANK. Sevens---impression poor, and the President's name spelt M'Lellen instead of Lellan.

PORTSMOUTH BANK, (N. H.) Three's ; paper whiter, but the signatures badly imitated, and the Cashier's name spelt wrong ; it should be Halliburton. They are signed by the former president, B. Conner.

PORTSMOUTH BANK, (N. H.) One's Three's and Four's, signed T. O. N. & Sheafe. Paper of the genuine, dark complexion, and oiled ; whereas the counterfeits are done with sweet oil, which gives them a yellowish cast. In the true Four's, the word Dollars, in capital letters in the first line, is exactly even with the word Four. In the bad bills the D in dollars projects higher. The Three's may be known by the word demand, which is too small, the d's being also too small for the other letters in the same word. The One's, in the word Dollar across the left margin of the bill, the lower part does not form a straight line.

PROVIDENCE BANK, (R. I.) John I. Clark, president, Olney Winfor, cashier. Two's, signed John Innes Clark, president, dated Jan. 9, 1805, and better executed than the original. In the word Five in large capitals across the bill, the F completely covers the small letter in the word Five, 2d line from top; in the genuine, it is covered but in part. Some Ten dollar bills are in circulation, altered from a smaller denomination.

RHODE-ISLAND UNION BANK, Newport.—Three's, poorly done. The words 'Three dollars,' in capitals at the top, badly imitated, particularly the S. Tens lately got into circulation.

SALEM BANK, (Mass.) Benj. Pickman, jr. president, and Jona. Hodges, cashier; Four and Six. No Four's are issued by the Bank; and the Six bears fictitious signatures of president and cashier.

SMITHFIELD UNION BANK, (R. I.) Three, Five, and Seven; in the Three's the words 'bearer' and 'demand' are not cut so straight as in the genuine, which are dated June 3, 1805, and have not been numbered higher than 600; but the bad ones are, and the red ink has a yellowish cast. The Five's are of the first impression, and will compare closely; signatures poorly done, and others there are well imitated by copperplate writing, dated Aug. 22, 1806. The true Sevens, have five or six water-marks, the bad none; the flukes of the anchor higher and narrower, the foot of the female slimmer, and the toes turning up; all which are not in the genuine. Twenty, altered from one: execution good, but may be detected from the word twenty in figures, which is very crowded. One dollar bills are also counterfeited, and many are in circulation.

STRAFFORD BANK, Dover, (N. H.) Two's badly executed; letters thicker than the true bills. Stereotype One dollar bills altered to a Four, are in circulation.

TRENTON BANK, (N. J.) One, Three, and Five dollars, counterfeited; signatures executed with great awkwardness; impression much heavier and blacker than the genuine.

UNION BANK, Boston. Five's executed with a pen, and easily distinguished; the Indian scarcely visible. One Hundred dollar counterfeit bill of this Bank has been seen; but hardly an imitation of the genuine; apparently delineated by a hair pencil.

UNITED STATES BANK. Five, Ten, Twenty, Fifty, and One Hundred dollar counterfeit bills, are in circulation, of the various Branches. The paper in general is not of so good a quality as the true bills, and the engraving not so handsome; signatures in some instances well imitated. 1808.]

ed, and in others, appear to be made with a stiff pen. Attention should be paid by those who receive these bills.

WASHINGTON BANK, Westerly, (R. I.) Five's; impression smaller, and paper of a yellowish complexion. Twenty-Five, also, altered from one.

☞ According to law, all bills in Massachusetts, under Five dollars, must be of an oval form, with the denomination at each of the corners outside of the rim; most of which are stereotype.

WARREN BANK. One Dollar Counterfeit Bills of this Bank have just made their appearance. The letters are very clumsily engraved. The words WARREN BANK in capitals are uneven, and strikingly different from the genuine, as is the whole face of the bill. Some Three's are also circulating.
